

DESIREE CALDERON

Creative Assistant / Coordinator

Desiree is motivated by a deep-seated passion for global cultures and design, problem solving and technology. A true creative and a 'quick study' by any standard, Desiree's focused approach to work and her thirst for learning frequently lead to innovative ideas and practical solutions on projects and in daily operations.

Her contributions come with enthusiasm and ability, a personable ease and sensibility - key in an often intense, deadline driven creative workplace, and essential in assisting management of Client's expectations. With a diverse skill set, a well regarded history in hospitality and operations, forays and explorations in technology, Desiree plays a key role in L.A. Design Associates.

Beyond the office, her talents and organizational skills have led her to develop a regularly scheduled, award winning live-stream gaming channel, recognized and awarded by Nvidia and evidenced daily by many thousands of her followers.

Her innate thoroughness and keen eye for detail along with her empathic commitment to assistance and professionalism in business relationships, clearly distinguish her in a wide field and we are thrilled to welcome and work with her at L.A. Design Associates.